C. O. POWNING, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

SHARON'S CANDIDACY.

The Hon. Wm. Sharon is a candidate for re-election to the U. S. Senate, and although a resident of San Francisco, hopes to have the sovereign State of Nevada again bestow upon him her most precious gift. The Journal was the only Republican paper in the State of Nevada which opposed Mr. Sharon in the campaign of 1874. The effect of its influence made it a possibility for the election of a legislative delegation from Washoe county, opposed to Mr. Sharon. But the $500,000 expended "where it would do the most good," was the direct means of electing a sufficient number of his friends to invest Mr. Sharon with the high prize he so greatly coveted. All of the JOURNAL predictions of 1874 have been verified. Mr. Sharon's course in the Senate has reflected no credit upon himself, and certainly not even his bosom companions will dare to assert that Nevada has gained aught but disgrace from her Representative. The tactics of 1874 are to be repeated in 1880, and if money can accomplish the outrage it will be repeated.

The programme is to carry Ormsby, Lyon, Esmeralda, White Pine and Eureka counties, which, with the hold-over Senators who are believed to be favorable to him, enough votes would be secured to insure his re-election. It is possible that Sharon may be re-elected, but it will take more money than both the Nevada Bank and the Bank of California can put up.

TRANSFER OF BATTLE FLAGS.—The 17th of September will be one of the days to become memorable in the annals of Hartford. On that day the battle flags of the Connecticut volunteer regiments, numbering eighty-four, will be taken from the State Arsenal, in Arsenal street, and borne in procession by the veterans, escorted by the First C. N. G., the Governor's Guard, and perhaps other organizations, to the new State House, where they are to be placed in handsome cases, built by the authority of the last Legislature.

Connecticut enlisted 54,882 men in all branches of the land service, including thirty-one regiments of militia, and it is believed there will be at least 3,000 survivors in the line. Connecticut was particularly prolific in leaders, having had fifty-two general officers and several naval celebrities. Among them Admiral Foote, Generals Lyon, Terry, Benham, Couch, Ferry, Harland, Hawley, Judah, Mower, Mackenzie, Ripley, Sedgwick, Stedman, Steinwehr and Totten. Hartford is anticipating an influx of thousands of visitors on the day named.

OVERTROWNING MISSISSIPPI STEAMERS.—Four boats of the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company having been libeled for carrying passengers in excess of the number allowed by law, the company appealed to the Treasury Department, and Judge Raynor decided that the Secretary of the Treasury, under section 5,261, has the power to remit the fines and penalties. The passengers taken up by the boats were principally negroes, and the company hold that it was an act of humanity in them to accommodate all they could, as the banks were lined with helpless refugees. Judge Raynor also holds this position. The attorneys for the libelants have asked for a review of the case and that they be heard.

The California State Board of Health has issued the following address to the public:

Fears having been entertained in some quarters that the yellow fever may find its way into California, the State Board of Health deem it proper to announce that they have placed themselves in communication with the managers of the Central Pacific Railroad in relation to the subject, and that the utmost care will be exercised by the officers on the road to detain any person who may have the disease, and to quarantine any car in which the disease may appear. Correspondence has also been opened with the National Board of Health at Washington, so that advantage may be taken of any information and counsel from that quarter. Under these circumstances, the port of San Francisco, being vigilantly guarded by the Board of Health of that city, it is believed that no occasion exists for the slightest apprehension that the yellow fever will invade our State.

Massachusetts Republicans are confident that Ben Butler has less chance of success for Governor this year than last, because returning business prosperity has greatly decreased the army of discontents, and extinguished the Greenback element there.

Counsel General Bradford, at Shanghai, has resigned his position, and his resignation has been accepted.

Frank Drake, formerly District Attorney of Storey county, will go to Bodie to live.

LONDON LETTER.

[Regular Correspondence.]

LONDON, July 20th, 1879.

The town is emptying rapidly; the season is almost at an end. There has been, again, in the course of the now practically moribund season a much larger average than usual of Court mourning. One sinister event after another has thrown Royalty into sables; the fashionable and middle class society being both highly imitative bodies; mourning as prescribed by the Court Circular has meant more or less modified black garments in many grades of.

THE SOCIAL SCALE.

The energetic proprietors of "Magasins de denil" may well have profited from the circumstance of there having been what physicians and undertakers used to call "a nice sickly season;" but their feelings of complacency may not have been shared by the mercers and the milliners who purvey "the newest Spring fashions" and "the latest Summer novelties." The coal merchants again may rejoice when they remember that the keeping up of roaring fires in May and June this year has been, under stress of weather, by no means uncommon; and the umbrella manufacturers may congratulate themselves on the long series of sloppy victories achieved by Jupiter Pluvius over the "Lord of the Silver Bow."

Still tailors and dress-makers have had little reason to be pleased with a Summer at the height of which gentlemen were fain to walk abroad in last Winter's ulsters, and ladies, instead of appearing in those radiant and diaphanous costumes which Mr. Absolon and Mr. Tissot paint so deftly, have crept to and from their carriages clad in water-proofs or in fur-lined mantles when they have mustered up courage enough to go shopping. The benevolent Fates, on the other hand, rarely shut one door without opening another. Amid all

THE SOCIAL WOES.

With which we have been afflicted there has been in many directions compensation. Those spirited and skilful confectioners who minister to the comforts of residents and visitors must have done on the whole, remarkably well, and the worthy West-end butcher might join hands with the estimable West-end fishmonger in gratitude at the close of a season during which, despite many depressing circumstances, their commodities have been in considerable demand. The position of the greengrocer has been most pitiable, for owing to the absence of sunshine and the superfluity of rain, he has scarcely anything to sell except water-saturated potatoes, insipid strawberries, puny peas, and cherries composed mainly of stalks, skins and stones. The florists—especially those with a large command of conservatories—are less to be commiserated. Their profits this season should have been very big indeed. The

MODERN LOVE.

For flowers in fashionable London Society is attaining the proportions of a mania. A splendid profusion of the fairest gifts of Flora is visible wherever Society congregates. On the hymenial altar and on the dinner table, on the ball room, staircase and in the palace vestibule, in the button hole of the dandy and on the shoulder of beauty, in bouquets at operas and theatres, and on wreaths and crosses, the lid of the coffin, and the verge of the tomb, flowers are universally present.

It is a very sweet and tender and beautiful usage, and a remarkably good thing in the way of business for the fashionable florists.

INDIAN FANDANGO.

Leading members of the Piute tribe have issued an order for a big fandango to be held at Winnemucca next week.

Couriers have been sent to Wadsworth, Reno, Carson and Virginia City in Western Nevada, to Stillwater in Churchill county, to Austin in Lander county, and to McDermitt and other points in Northern Nevada. The Silver State says: The Shoshones have been invited to meet with the Piutes and state their grievances and their reasons for ordering the Piutes to leave Austin. The fandango and council will be held on the Humboldt bottom, below town.

Gen. James Bommford was a marvel of personal strength in his younger days, and while serving as captain in the Mexican war "took down" a Mexican bully at Tolteca. The bully entered a store one day, and, while his hand was lying on the counter, Bommford, without a word, stepped to his side, placed the point of his elbow on the hand, and pressed it as though it had been in a vice. The astonished Mexican squirmed and twisted in his efforts to extricate his hand, but to no purpose. Bommford asked some trifling question of the storekeeper, and then quietly left. The bully was not seen again in the town while the troops remained.

The rising musician in England is Master d'Albert, fifteen years of age, who not only carried off the national school honors for composition, but played "as well as Rubenstein." His father is a ballet-master.

Paper is made by the Japanese of blue rags. The water used in boiling was formerly run off into the streams with poisonous results, but is now saved and indigo extracted from it.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

An assessment of 50 cents was yesterday levied on Bullion.

An assessment of 25 cents was yesterday levied on North Bonanza. No mistake about this.

The health of General Thomas H. Williams, a few days ago reported at the point of death, is now said to be improving.

The jury in the case of Ellen E. Nixon vs. Pixley & McConnell, of Carson, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $23,390.

Captain Ead, of Mississippi fame, has received a communication from the Governor of California asking him to accept the office of State Engineer and take charge of the work of improving the Sacramento river.

The San Francisco Republicans have nominated for Supervisors: David Loudonback, F. P. Dunn, John F. Finn, H. D. Scripture, James C. Cary, J. M. Allen, W. H. Frisell, T. K. Wilson, C. D. Darwin, R. Guy McClellan, S. H. Dwinello and John Hunt, Jr. The convention adopted resolutions pledging the candidates for Supervisors to oppose a rate of taxation in excess of one cent, and to make a reduction of gas and water rates and school expenses.

A perfect stampede of citizens, from Corinth, Miss., is in progress, owing to the illness of the Mayor and the President of the Board of Health, who are supposed to be sick with yellow fever. It is thought that their coming in contact with citizens fleeing from Memphis at the quarantine station caused the infection. The people are fleeing to the country, but many farmers quarantine against them, and they are roaming through the woods trying to find refuge and safety. Seventy-five left at day-light yesterday.

Here is a fearful instance of woman's perfidy. A young man in the country went to take his girl for a walk, but found that she had not done her milking. With a gallantry that does credit to a young man, he volunteered to do the milking for her, while she was making her toilet. After he had got her milking done, had hung the milk stool on the bars, and set the pail of milk in the kitchen, washed his hands at the pump with soft soap, and wiped them on the tail of his duster, he discovered that she had gone to a circus with another young man who didn't know enough to extract milk from a milk wagon. The deserted young man kicked over the milk pail, and went his way a saddest man.

An Englishman was riding on a Continental railway, when a sudden halt and loud report informed the passengers that some accident had happened. Every one else rushed out, of course, to see what was the matter, but he sat tranquilly, as if not at all interested in anything beyond his own thoughts. Presently a person came up and informed him that the engine had burst its boiler. "Awe!" Then came another, saying that there were fifteen persons killed. The Englishman still sat unmoved and grunted out another "awe!" But, finally, a third messenger came running up in great haste and said: "My dear sir, your vallet has been blown into ten pieces!" "Awe!" was the response, "just bring me the piece that contains the key to my portmanteau."

Joaquin Miller's idea of a poem: "To me a poem must be a picture, and it must be a picture, if a good poem, so simple that I can understand it at a glance, and see it and remember it, as I would see and remember a sunset. I also demand that it shall be lofty in sentiment and sublime in expression. The only rule I have for measuring the merits of a poem is by the hold that it takes on my mind and memory. I do not want to remember the words, but I do demand that it remain with me a picture and become a part of my existence." Mr. Miller cites "Evangeline" as answering his requirements, being a succession of pictures and beautiful in language.

A lately organized company in London, the "Anglo-American Food Supply Stores and Trading Company," with a capital of £150,000 sterling, is about opening a mammoth establishment where the public will be enabled to purchase all articles of food under one roof, and from first hands, at a much less cost than they are now sold for. The company is making special arrangements by which the products of the great food centers of America will be brought almost to the doors of the consumers without the employment of agents and the usual attending expenses.

Myron G. Collins, of Tennessee claims to have discovered a cure for rattlesnake bites. Drs. Eve and Shicklett, of Nashville, according to the American, made a test of the medicines Collins let a rattlesnake bite him on the wrist, and at once applied to the wound and took inwardly a decoction of mosses from oak and hickory trees. He suffered from nausea, and his pulse and temperature were excited, but within an hour he had completely recovered. The bite of the same reptile speedily killed a dog.

SABAH SAM POLLARD.—The Tuscarora "What-is-it?" Sarah Samuel Pollard has, says the Times-Review, quit the sagebrush business, and is now hauling hay from the Spanish ranch to town, Samrah, who appears as much at home when astride of the near wheeler as on the rostrum, has engaged to haul a hundred tons, which contract will require about six weeks to finish.

Grasshoppers are doing much damage in Dakota and Northwestern Iowa.

THE RUSSIAN PATRIOTIC FLEET.

[From the Pall Mall Gazette.]

Odessa has become for the last two months the place of rendezvous for the vessels belonging to the patriotic fleet, so-called, which are to convey prisoners to the island of Saghalien. Convicts from prisons in every part of Russia are being sent to Odessa, and 700 of them, most of whom are nihilists, have already been embarked on board the Nijni-Novgorod. This new mode of transport will be much quicker and less costly than the one hitherto adopted, for the prisoners, instead of being two years on the road, will now be taken to Saghalien in two months, the route being from Odessa through the Suez Canal to Vladivostock and Saghalien. The cargo of each vessel comprises, in addition to food and clothing for the prisoners, iron for building purposes, glass, plants and agricultural machinery. The Golos, giving the reasons which have induced the Government to select the Land of Saghalien as a place of transportation, says that the eleven prisons for the reception of convicts are so full that the one at present contains 2,000, and that the ten others at Topolsk (which has two—one for males and the other for females), Vilna, Perm Psokw, Simbirsk, Iletskaia, Zastchita, Novoborissko and Kharkoff are full to overflowing, having five or six hundred more prisoners than they are capable of holding. The batch of convicts sent to Saghalien in the Nijni-Novgorod were taken from the prisons at Kharkoff, Vilna, Psokw and Novoborissko, and in the course of the summer drafts will be made to relieve the other penitentiaries.

Under a new law in Texas, physicians not permanent are taxed $50; each horse entered for not less than a quarter-mile $25; over a quarter: $10; each bull-fight, $500; life insurance companies, $100.

SUCCESS IN THE STOCK MARKET.

Five people understand how large fortunes are amassed so rapidly in stock operations. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have just published "two unerring rules for success" and full details, so that any one can operate. Mailed Free. Their new combination system of dealing in stocks is wonderfully profitable. By this method thousands of orders, in various sums are pooled into one immense capital, and co-operated as a mighty whole, thus securing to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and best skill. Profits divided every 30 days. $15 would make $75 profit, $100 would return $1,000, or 10 per cent. on the stock in the month, and soon, according to the market. A New York Fashion Editress and prominent newspaper correspondent, made over 475 per cent. profit on an investment, Oct. 5th, 1878. Many others are doing as well or better. Large or small amounts can be used with equal proportionate success by this system. All kinds of stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.
